YOU'RE SOMEBODY SPECIAL TO GOD

For those of you who don't know Jesus, would you like to know Him? All you need to do is pray the prayer below with a sincere and trusting heart, and you will be born again!

Dear God in Heaven, I come to you in the name of Jesus to receive salvation and eternal life. I believe that Jesus is your Son. I believe that He died on the cross for my sins and that you raised Him from the dead. I receive Jesus now into my heart and make Him the Lord of my life. Jesus, come into my heart. I welcome you as my Lord and Savior. Father, I believe your word says that I am now saved. I confess with my mouth that I am saved and born again. I am now a child of God.

If you prayed this prayer, please tell us about it. We want to send you a free book.

Is it really possible to experience supernatural increase in every area of your life?

For more than fifty years, Dr. Jerry Savelle has experienced manifestations of God's supernatural increase in both his personal life and his ministry. When, in late 2019, the Lord spoke to him, saying, "I am about to open a new door, and I will cause My faithful ones to experience supernatural increase as never before." Dr. Savelle knew his mandate was to take this message to the body of Christ throughout the world.

In this scripturally sound and easy-to-understand book, Dr. Jerry Savelle sets forth the biblical principles of supernatural increase.

God's desire is that you move to a higher level in every area of your life—spiritually, financially, professionally, and socially. As you take a step of faith to walk through the open door before you, embracing these principles on a consistent basis, you'll soon experience God's prophesied supernatural increase as never before!

Established in Faith

Jerry Savelle

We have this saying in Texas: You dance with the one who brung ya! In other words, you don't change partners in the middle of a dance.

Well, I've been "dancing" with the Word of Faith since 1969 and I'm not about to change now. I'm not looking for some new message because this one still works—and I intend to keep preaching it all the days of my life.

When I listen to some of the messages I preached in the 1970s, they sound pretty much like today's messages. The only difference is that now I have much more experience in walking in faith. The apostle Paul said, As you therefore have received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in Him, rooted and built up in Him and established in the faith, as you have been taught, abounding in it with thanksgiving (Colossians 2:6–7). The Message says, You know your way around the faith. Now do what you've been taught.

The word established as used in the verse above implies "being settled securely and unconditionally." Those established in their faith don't hope or wish to get through times of trouble, they know they will come through victorious because God is faithful to His Word.

In light of the present challenging circumstances faced by people around the world—loss of jobs, businesses closing, and an international pandemic—the Word of God is our light and direction: "You know your way around faith. Now do what you've been taught!"

Nothing going on in the world today changes what the Word of God says. God knew this turmoil was coming and He's already made provision for it. In fact, His children are protected and provided for throughout this life and eternity. There's no need to find some new revelation from the Word of God to get us through these times; we need only to do what we've been taught.

Timothy was a young man considered by Paul as his son in the faith, to whom the apostle wrote these words: But know this, that in the last days perilous times will come (2 Timothy 3:1). The Amplified Bible, Classic Edition says, But understand this, that in the last days will come (set in) perilous times of great stress and trouble [hard to deal with and hard to bear]. Notice Paul never said such times would be impossible to bear. That's not going to happen because Satan is limited—but we are not!

So what's the solution to our dealing with perilous times? We find the answer in 2 Timothy 3:14: But you must continue in the things which you have learned and been assured of... . It's going to take the same revelation we originally received about being established in faith, and then—importantly—be deliberate about the words we choose to speak.

What's in Your Mouth?

I was new to my faith when I read this verse: Death and life are in the power of the tongue (Proverbs 18:21). At the time I'd not yet learned that the words of my mouth would actually determine what I had—good and bad. For instance, one moment I'd speak words of faith, declaring "My God supplies all my need," and the next moment I'd say, "I'm going broke; I'm about to lose everything." One day I asked Brother Copeland for advice, saying, "I've tried everything you've taught me, but it's not working. What's wrong?"

"Your problem, Jerry, is your big mouth," he said. You need to learn the vocabulary of silence!"

I didn't like what he said to me, but he was right. Later, I asked the Lord what it meant to "learn the vocabulary of silence." He said, "If you can't talk My Word, then just be silent." That was a great revelation for me.

The Bible tells us, You are snared by the words of your mouth; you are taken by the words of your mouth (Proverbs 6:2). I've said for years, one of the wisest investments a Christian can make, particularly in difficult times like these, is to buy a roll of duct tape, place a piece over your mouth, and leave it there until you can speak only the Word of God over circumstances.

Someone recently said, "Brother Jerry, do you mean to tell me we need to go back to watching what we say?"

I said, "No—because I've never stopped watching what I say."

We must always be careful about what we say. Jesus said, "For assuredly I say to you, whoever says to this mountain, 'Be removed and be cast into the sea,' and does not doubt in his heart, but believes that those things he says will be done, he will have whatever he says" (Mark 11:23). One of the foundational principles of faith is that we will have what we say.

Another principle of faith I learned was from the writings of Paul appears in his letter to the church in Corinth:

I learned to apply this principle, while speaking only the Word of God over my needs and circumstances, my life changed drastically.

That's why, whenever I hear the latest report on conditions around the world, I can boldly declare, "None of

"None of these things move me. I'm established in the Word of God and in faith and I'm rooted and grounded in Christ; therefore, my God shall supply all of my needs according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus!"

Jerry Savelle

For we walk by faith, not by sight (2 Corinthians 5:7). And then I heard Brother Copeland say, "I'm not moved by what I see, what I hear, or what I feel. I'm only moved by what I believe—and I believe the Word of God." Once these things move me. I'm established in the Word of God and in faith and I'm rooted and grounded in Christ; therefore, my God shall supply all of my needs according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus!"

The Bible clearly says that no weapon formed against you will prosper (see Isaiah 54:17). Lay hold of this promise in the Word of God, and let it flow as words from your mouth, firmly established in your heart. This is how you will overcome all that is going on around you. Notice the Bible didn't say no weapons would be formed against you; rather, no weapon formed would prosper. Be established in the fact that no assignment the enemy sets against you will succeed.

Hold Fast to Joy and Faith

A number of years ago God taught me this powerful truth: if Satan can't steal your joy, he can't keep your goods. I used that truth as the title of a book I wrote, which has been translated into a number of languages and distributed around the world. It remains one of my best-selling titles.

Joy is a powerful spiritual force. I don't deny the crisis condition in the world today, but I've made the decision I will not be moved by it. I'm going to run my race and finish my course with joy. No pandemic will rob me of my joy.

I know that in the face of physical, financial, and material losses occurring today for many people, it would be easy to cast away faith, but the Bible says, Therefore do not cast away your confidence, which has great reward. Now the just shall live by faith (Hebrews 10:35, 38). 1 John 5:4 teaches, And this is the victory that has overcome the world—our faith.

I encourage you to be sure you are established in your faith, don't cast it away. Don't allow Satan to steal your joy or your peace. God is still on the throne, Jesus is still Lord, and the Holy Spirit still abides in you. The Word of God still works, and no weapon formed against you will prosper.

Sadly, many who claim to be people of faith have no problem speaking the Word of God when things are going well, but when the bottom falls out they quickly begin to speak forth their circumstances: "I just know I'm going to lose my job," "I'll probably get sick and lose my house." No longer moved only by the Word of God, they are moved by what they see, hear, and feel. Instead of walking by faith, they walk by sight.

I like the way The Message presents James 1:3: Consider it a sheer gift, friends, when tests and challenges come at you from all sides. You know that under pressure, your faith-life is forced into the open and shows its true colors. Are your true colors on display right now? What do other see in you, a person who walks by sight or a person who walks by faith?

Adversity has a way of showing us what we're made of. Anyone can be positive and joyful when things are going well. Anyone can praise God and speak the Word in times of peace and prosperity. But what about now, when the entire world is under pressure and fear and doubt run rampant?

Lester Sumrall used to say, "Feed your faith and starve your doubts." In these times when many have lost jobs due to being at home for months, there is yet a choice to be made. People can choose either to watch the bad news report on TV all day long, or they can get in the Word of God and allow it to come alive within them. Doubt cannot live where faith thrives, and we know that faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the Word of God (see Romans 10:17). When we feed our faith, we starve out doubt.

As Christians, we never get to the place where we've heard enough of God's Word. If you've let the Word slip, all you have to do is go back and listen to the messages that first established you in the Word and in your faith. Don't waver and don't give up. Hold fast to joy and hold fast to faith. Watch what you say. This is how you will come through this or any other crisis you may face, for the Bible says, Do not sorrow, for the joy of the Lord is your strength (Nehemiah 8:10).

Be a Doer of the Word

James talks of the importance of looking into the law of liberty—the Word of God—and not merely hearing it, but doing it, saying, This one will be blessed in what he does (James 1:25). It's important that we hear the Word, but even more important that we do not lay it aside.

It's the doer of the Word who is blessed in his or her deeds. The Passion Translation of James 1:25 says, they experience God's blessing in all that they do! Wouldn't it be great to see this promise fulfilled in your life right now? Well, if you're a doer of the Word then you can expect the blessings of God to manifest, even under the world's present conditions.

Being a doer of the Word means you are not just hearing the Word, but you're taking your Bible and looking at those verses you've highlighted, your favorite ones. Doing the Word means you walk the floor, reading and confessing God's Word, not changing your mind about their validity based on what you may be going through.

When in a crisis, don't run from God—run to Him! Don't run from the Word—run to it! Remember, don't cast away your confidence because it has great reward (see Hebrews 10:35). Another word for confidence is faith. The Message says, So don't throw it all away now You were sure of yourselves then. It's still a sure thing! But you need to stick it out, staying with God's plan so you'll be there for the promised completion.

This is not the time to cast away your faith or forget where your Bible is. It's not time to look for another way of getting through your present trials and troubles. It's time to go back and put to work the principles of faith you were established in, and to do exactly what Paul said to do: continue in the things you've learned, and do what you've been taught. In other words, be a doer of the Word!

Never Stop Sowing

Psalm 112 is a perfect description of a man who is a doer of the Word:

Blessed is the man who fears the LORD, who delights greatly in His commandments.

His descendants will be mighty on earth; the generation of the upright will be blessed. Wealth and riches will be in his house, and his righteousness endures forever. Unto the upright there arises light in the darkness; he is gracious, and full of compassion, and righteous. A good man deals graciously and lends; he will guide his affairs with discretion. Surely he will never be shaken; the righteous will be in everlasting remembrance. He will not be afraid of evil tidings; his heart is steadfast, trusting in the LORD. His heart is established; he will not be afraid, until he sees his desire upon his enemies.

He has dispersed abroad, he has given to the poor, his righteousness endures forever (verses 1–9).

This man's heart is established, steadfast, and trusting in the Lord. The Amplified Bible, Classic Edition says, His heart is established and steady (verse 8), and The Message says, Heart ready, trusting in GOD, spirit firm, unperturbed, ever blessed, relaxed among enemies.

These blessings came as a result of his being a doer of the Word, now let's take a closer look at what he was doing. Notice this man was gracious, full of compassion, and gave to those in need. He had dispersed abroad and given to the poor. In other words, he was a sower.

Though this man may have heard some evil tidings, he was not afraid; therefore, he continued to sow. This is the attitude and lifestyle of someone whose heart is established in faith. They know where they stand with God. They know He will never abandon them nor let them fail. This is why they never stop sowing.

God's Plans Haven't Changed

The word the Lord gave me for 2020 was, "I am about to open a new door, and I will cause my faithful ones to experience supernatural increase as never before." Some may wonder how this word could possibly come to pass in anyone's life in light of the devastating financial effects of coronavirus. Well, God knew before He spoke that word the events that were coming: an international pandemic, worldwide economic shutdown, unemployment, and a big hit on Wall Street.

The Bible says, [God] gives life to the dead and calls those things which do not exist as though they did (Romans 4:17). The Amplified Bible, Classic Edition says, [God] gives life to the dead and speaks of the nonexistent things that [He has foretold and promised] as if they [already] existed. God was actually calling for supernatural increase—in spite of what was coming!

As I meditated recently on the faithfulness of God, the word of the Lord came to me, saying, "Do not fret and do not fear. I still plan to give you a supernatural year; it's not over, and you will not fail. Didn't I tell you that the gates of hell would not prevail? Rest in Me and I'll see you through, and I'll bring to pass all that I said I would do. So thank your Father in heaven that you have a choice: you can choose to fear or you can choose to rejoice. So rejoice, and do not cease; this is how you'll tap in to my supernatural peace."

God has promised that his faithful ones will experience supernatural increase. The worst thing any of us could do is to cast away our faith and everything we've learned, particularly about sowing and reaping. Though some may not have what they normally sow, or would like to sow, it's important to keep sowing. Our sowing demonstrates we are established in faith, that we are not moved by evil tidings; rather, we are moved only by the Word of God.

Remember the promise of Psalm 112:3 to the one whose heart is established: Wealth and riches will be in his house. Take this promise as your own, because not only will you be taken care of, you'll also be in position to bless others. What better time to be in this position than right now.

I want to encourage you to be firmly established in your faith. Let your heart be established in the Word of God, and by all means don't ever stop sowing. This is how you'll remain connected to the source of supernatural increase.

Basic revelations EVERY Believer Should be established in

carolyn savelle

We live in unprecedented times, confirmed by the fact that prior to February 2020 none of us had heard of coronavirus. The very nature of this virus demands of us isolation and self-quarantine. When we do go out for basic needs, we are required to maintain six feet of “social distance” from others.

In essence, humanity has been banished to the solitude of home as fear runs rampant throughout the world. With all of today’s uncertainty, it is imperative that we establish our hearts securely in the Word of God.

I take particular comfort in the words of Jesus, “Do not fear, little flock, for it is your Father’s good pleasure to give you the kingdom” (Luke 12:32), and in those penned by the psalmist: He will not be afraid of evil tidings; his heart is steadfast, trusting in the LORD. His heart is established; he will not be afraid, until he sees his desire upon his enemies (Psalm 112:7–8).

The word establish means “to set up on a firm or permanent basis.” In other words, your heart can be firm and permanent in trusting the Lord. You don’t have to be moved by evil tidings, bad news, or anything going on in the world.

The apostle Paul is an example of one who remained established and steadfast in his faith, even in the face of great difficulties. In his letter to the church in Rome he said, Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? As it is written: “For Your sake we are killed all day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter” (Romans 8:35–36). The situation Paul describes sounds bad, but he also said, Yet in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us (verse 37).

You and I will sometimes face turmoil and trouble; however, if our hearts are established in the Word of God we cannot be shaken. We will be more than conquerors!

God never promised that weapons would never be formed against us—He promised they would not prosper: “No weapon formed against you shall prosper, and every tongue which rises against you in judgment you shall condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD, and their righteousness is from Me,” says the LORD.

Just as building the foundation of a house requires work, so does building a foundation on which we establish our hearts. It requires prayer, reading the Word, forsaking the world, keeping our eyes on Jesus, and so much more. The Bible gives us seven major revelations that will help us establish our hearts in these

You are the redeemed

The Bible describes what Jesus did in our behalf: Not with the blood of goats and calves, but with His own blood He entered the Most Holy Place once for all, having obtained eternal redemption (Hebrews 9:12). When you confess that you are redeemed by the blood of the lamb (Jesus Christ), you declare you are no longer under Satan's kingdom. The Word of God says, Christ has redeemed us from the curse of the law, having become a curse for us (for as it is written, "Cursed is everyone who hangs on a tree"), that the blessing of Abraham might come upon the Gentiles in Christ Jesus, that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith (Galatians 3:13–14).

• • •

To be new means "of recent origin; existing or appearing for the first time." According to 2 Corinthians 5:17–18, If anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new. Now all things are of God... . The Greek words for new creation refer to a species that never before existed. The old things are gone. All things have become new.

• • •

You are a new creation through Christ Jesus

You are the righteousness of God in Christ Jesus

Righteousness is an old English word that simply means "right standing with God." The Word of God says, For He made Him who knew no sin to be sin for us, that we might become the righteousness of God in Him (2 Corinthians 5:21). You have been made the righteousness of God in Jesus. You are not righteous because of what you've done or how spiritual you may feel at any given moment; you are righteous because God says you are.

God is for us. God is with us. God is in us. Only two of these relationships were in effect for those who lived in Old Testament times: God was for them and He was with them. With these relationships intact, God's people were assured success. But you and I have been blessed with the relationship of God's dwelling in us, for God said, "I will dwell in them and walk among them. I will be their God and they shall be My people" (2 Corinthians 6:16). For this reason the Bible reminds us that He who is in you is greater than he who is in the world (1 John 4:4).

The name of Jesus carries all power in heaven, in earth, and under the earth, for the Bible says, Therefore God also has highly exalted Him and given Him the name which is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those in heaven, and of those on earth, and of those under the earth, and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the father (Philippians 2:9-11). Everything must bow to the name of Jesus!

I know these are the most uncertain times our generation has ever lived in. This is why it's critical that we become established in each of these seven major revelations from God's Word. I want to personally encourage you today with these words from Paul's letter to the church in Colosse: As you therefore have received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in Him, rooted and built up in Him and established in the faith, as you have been taught, abounding in it with thanksgiving (Colossians 2:7).

You can find this information and much more in Jerry Savelle's book, The Established Heart.

God's Word is His Integrity

The truth of God's Word is His integrity, His bond. In other words, God will do what He says, and He will back His Word. Through the prophet Jeremiah God said, I am alert and active, watching over My word to perform it (Jeremiah 1:12 AMPC). God also said, "So shall My word be that goes forth from My mouth; it shall not return to Me void, but it shall accomplish what I please, and it shall prosper in the thing for which I sent it" (Isaiah 55:11).

Faith is a gift from God to you: For by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God (Ephesians 2:8). Romans 12:3 teaches that God has dealt to each one a measure of faith, and we find these words in 1 John 5:4: For whatever is born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that has overcome the world—our faith (1 John 5:4).

Heart

Savelle

The times in which we live offer ample opportunity to be troubled, afraid, and easily shaken by the bad reports that fill our daily newscasts. When we look at the trouble, listen to the bad news, and talk about them to others, in essence we magnify the works of the devil.

But the good news is this: as believers, we can actually live in the midst of turmoil and pressure without being shaken by them. We can live with our hearts established, trusting in the Lord, and not afraid of anything Satan may bring upon the earth.

Psalm 112 describes a man whose heart is established in God's Word: Surely he will never be shaken; the righteous will be in everlasting remembrance. He will not be afraid of evil tidings; his heart is steadfast, trusting in the Lord. His heart is established; he will not be afraid, until he sees his desire upon his enemies (verses 6–8).

If you are troubled over the things happening in the world today, and you're afraid or shaken by the bad news pouring from virtually every news outlet, then you can be sure that your heart is not established. I don't say this to bring condemnation; my purpose is to bring these truths to your attention so that you can do what it takes to change your situation.

If you want to be like the man described in Psalm 112, then you must reach the point where you're not moved by what you hear, see, or feel; rather, you are moved only by the Word of God.

The established heart knows that, in every situation, God is more than enough and He will meet very need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus (see Philippians 4:19). The established heart trusts in God, and in order to trust in God it must trust His Word. Those whose hearts are established in God's Word are not afraid of evil tidings, bad news, contradictory evidence, or the woes and pressures of this world. They are fixed and settled, trusting in God.

Don't Be Troubled

One day, as Jesus sat on the Mount of Olives, His disciples went to Him privately and asked about the end times. Jesus said, "And you will hear of wars and rumors of wars. See that you are not troubled; for all these things must come to pass. For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. And there will be famines, pestilences, and earthquakes in various places (Matthew 24:6–7).

The things Jesus spoke of could have been taken from today's news headlines, which have a tendency to shake people. But it wasn't Jesus' intention to make us afraid—He came to preach the good news. He is the author and finisher of our faith (see Hebrews 12:2). Every sermon Jesus preached was designed to edify and create faith in those who heard Him. This is why, in the midst of speaking of the troubles that would come, He said, "See that you are not troubled." Jesus never wasted words. Every word He spoke was anointed of God and inspired by the Holy Spirit. If Jesus said, we are not to be troubled, then there must be a way for us to live in the midst of turmoil and not be troubled by it.

We Are More Than Conquerors

The apostle Paul is a perfect example of a man whose heart is established. Paul wrote of the tribulation, distress, persecution, and peril in the world, and then he said, Yet in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us. For I am persuaded that neither death nor life, nor angels nor principalities nor powers, nor things present nor things to come, nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing, shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord (Romans 8:37).

Paul's words are the confession of a believer whose heart is established in God's Word. By the time he wrote this letter, he'd already been through just about everything hell could throw his way as a result of the abundance of revelations he'd received. Jesus taught that when the seed of the Word is sown in a person's heart, Satan comes immediately to steal it. Paul was dangerous to Satan; consequently, Satan tried every way he could to stop Paul from preaching.

Paul did not give up and he did not give in. He proved the authority of the believer is to put on the whole armor of God, taking the shield of faith and quenching all the fiery darts of the wicked.

When you take the time to study the life of Paul and understand the truths found in the Word of God, you too can stand in the face of the enemy's attacks, sickness, and even death. You can boldly declare, "I am persuaded that nothing can separate me from the love of Christ because I am more than a conqueror in all these things!"

Only Believe

We find in the book of Mark the account of Jairus, another man whose heart was firmly established in God's Word. Jairus went to Jesus and said, "My little daughter lies at the point of death. Come lay Your hands on her, that she may be healed, and she will live" (Mark 5:23). The words Jairus spoke were proof of his firmly established faith. He knew Jesus could, and would, heal his daughter.

If Jesus said, we are not to be troubled, then there must be a way for us to live in the midst of turmoil and not be troubled by it.

On the way with Jairus to his home, Jesus stopped to minister to a woman in great need. While He was attending to her, messengers from Jairus's house came and reported that the girl had died. Clearly, Satan had come to steal the word.

Now comes the critical point in the story, the one many believers miss.

When the pressure was on, did Jairus change his confession that Jesus would lay His hands on the girl and she would live? No! When circumstances arise to try to prove there is no way for us to receive what we are believing for, we must choose either to speak the Word, or say nothing. There have been times when, in the face of fierce opposition, I've said absolutely nothing and put Satan on the run as quickly as when I speak the Word to him. This is exactly what Jairus chose to do; he didn't open his mouth.

The Bible tells us that Jesus said to Jairus, "Do not be afraid; only believe," and they continued on to the house, where Jesus laid His hands on the little girl and raised her from the dead. The whole time these events played out, Jairus held fast to what he believed and what he'd confessed. His heart was established; he trusted in the Lord.

Can you see the part the established heart plays in the life of a believer? The reason so many Christians are robbed of the blessings of God is because they fail to get God's Word into their hearts, and then establish their hearts in the Word.

If a man or woman will put God's Word in first place, exalting it above everything else, that Word will create the image of the Lord Jesus Christ in his or her life, producing the same results Jesus had when He walked the earth some two thousand years ago.

You can read through the gospels and see that Jesus never failed; not once was He defeated. He was never at a point where He could not overcome any situation with the faith and authority God had given Him. You and I are equipped with all that belongs to Jesus. When our hearts are firmly established, we can live according to Jesus' words in Matthew 24—untroubled in the midst of anything Satan throws our way.

TOGETHER IN FAITH. TOGETHER IN VICTORY.

With Chapters all over the world, Chariots of Light have ministered in rallies, neighborhoods, local events, jails, prisons, churches and among other places. In a time where darkness tries to overtake us, we are rising to be a great shining light and beacon to the world, fulfilling Philippians 2:15.

Our goal is to equip believers to do the work of an evangelist, which is to be a minister of the Gospel in a public setting, just like Jesus, and share Jesus with someone every day of our lives.

In 2019, we ministered to an astounding 65,279 people, with 53,515 people making a decision for Christ. These numbers represent salvations, recommitments, healings, miracles, reports of people changing the course of their lives, pointing people toward destiny, and turning them from darkness to light. All of this occurred because someone cared enough to stop and share the simple love and truth of the gospel of Jesus Christ.

We ask you to prayerfully consider what God would have you do to be a part of this unique ministry. We invite you to join us at one of our 2020 events listed below.
